TIME TO ENROL

SPECIAL ADVERTISING FEATURE

Decision time! The crucial questions around your children's education

Today, the Western Weekender presents a special Education Enrolment Feature, opening your eyes to the array of educational opportunities that are available in the general Penrith area.

Whether it's a pre-school, primary school, high school or university, the selection of where to send your child for their education can be a difficult one with many factors involved.

You may be deciding between whether a private or public school would best suit your child, or if a school with a specific focus – like performing arts – would benefit your child most.

Perhaps it's the school's reputation or history that matters most, or purely the location.

Whatever decision it is you're making in the near future, this special advertising feature is designed to assist you in making the right call.

We all know how important education is, so it's worth taking time and care with the decision on where best to enrol your children.
