Raine & Horne Penrith, an office where the majority is women, celebrates International Women's Day and recognizes a time to reflect on how far women have come to empower, inspire, motivate and support women across all sectors. We acknowledge back in 1928 in Australia the first International Women's Day was organized by the Militant Women's Movement, where women called for equal pay for equal work, an 8 hour working day and paid leave. This movement has continued to grow from strength to strength and the courage and determination of these women changed history for the better.

International Women's Day

RE/MAX

Gizzelle Powell
Broker Owner

International Women's Day is a day of solidarity for us all to celebrate the social, political, cultural and economic achievements of women. For me, this day acts as an opportunity to thank my family especially my husband for being supportive so I can do the job I love and be very good at it. Real estate is normally male dominated but with hard work, female agents nowadays are given the same opportunity to succeed.

I have just recently purchased the business and now the owner of the company. It's been a rollercoaster ride, especially now I'm wearing a different hat as both a manager and owner, looking after sales as well as people.

I have just come back from Queensland to accept another major Award from RE/MAX Network, the Chairman's Award. Our Penrith RE/MAX office is RATEMYAGENT's Agency of The Year for Penrith and Cambridge Park and yours truly is the Agent of the Year for Penrith and Cambridge Park for 2023.

I have my family, good team and a good network and I am grateful that through this job I can make a difference and help someone achieve their property goals. The joy of my clients when they have successfully bought or sold a property, this drives my passion even further.

RE/MAX Lifestyle Marketing, PENRITH

I commenced in real estate 6 years ago and was mentored by Phil Haley. He instilled in me the importance of being a professional in my field; to be prepared, transparent, and committed to serve our vendors. Equally, to serve our buyers, investors and tenants.

My success in real estate has come from the amazing support in our Penrith REMAX office from both the men and women in our team working together. Knowledge is power and I have been privileged to support young women in our office to develop their professional skills and to be strong and independent.

I have 2 adult daughters, Marne, an Industrial Designer and Zoe, an Intern Psychologist who are both succeeding in their fields and tell me that they are proud to have me as their mother, who is a woman succeeding in her field. My husband, Shane, has contributed to supporting our family and myself.

It was an honour in 2023 to receive another major award from our RE/MAX Lifestyle Marketing 233 High Street, Penrith NSW 2750 MAX Network the Chairman's Award, for commission earned and services provided in real estate.

I find myself to be one of the luckiest people, I have enjoyed a long career doing a profession that I love. I have had the pleasure of meeting some wonderful people and have helped them move on to their next stage of life. Real Estate is a career that you never have to retire from as long as you stay fit and healthy and up to date with current trends. I wouldn't want to be doing anything else.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

As we approach International Women's Day, it is a time to reflect on the achievements of women in various industries and to celebrate their contributions. As a woman in the real estate industry, I am proud to be part of a profession that has made significant strides in recent years.

Coming from a matriarchal family, I was raised by a woman who is strong, inspirational, and has unshakeable faith in God. Moving to a new country with a young family and starting all over again from scratch with many bumps and mishaps along the way, it was important for mum to build a life and design a career that provided success, support, prosperity, and work life balance. It was seeing these values that inspired me to strive for my own success in my career and life.

With over 10 years in the pharmaceutical industry in high-ranking roles, I made the switch to real estate with my husband in 2014. I wanted to transfer my corporate and relationship building skills I acquired and refined in the pharmaceutical industry with my passion for people. In real estate, you are engaged in people's lives in a way that you are not in many other professions. Owning a Real Estate business and leading a team for me was the perfect balance of both my passions - people and family. It allows me to grow, encourage, and build the business, alongside my husband. I feel fortunate to be growing and developing my career in a time where skill set is becoming the focus not gender. For me, as does my mum, I keep myself anchored in my faith and live by the verse "She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs without fear of the future." Proverbs 31:25

To all the beautiful women, never stop growing! You may be in the early stages of establishing and exploring your footprint in the world but be courageous! Identify your glass (anchors of your life) and rubber balls in life. By focusing on keeping the glass ones in the air whilst juggling life, you can achieve anything you set your mind to!

Happy International Women's day.
