

PENRITH CITY LOCAL BUSINESS AWARDS

Winners celebrate at last year's Local Business Awards in Penrith.

Hollywood has the Oscars and the music industry has the Grammys – but for Penrith businesses, the annual night of nights is Tuesday, October 25 and Wednesday, October 26.

Today is the day when nominees for the 2022 Penrith City Local Business Awards discover if they have made it as a finalist.

The Western Weekender, which has supported the awards as media partner for many years, is announcing the finalists in each category with a special feature in today's paper.

This is a chance for customers and clients to see if the businesses they nominated have become finalists.

The Penrith City Local Business Awards are only possible with the support of Presenting Partners, Commonwealth Bank and Major Partners, Panthers Penrith and NOVA Employment and Support Partners, Westfield Penrith, Nepean Village, Penrith Homemaker Centre, Southlands Shopping Centre, Nepean Regional Security, Bx Networking, Penrith Valley Chamber of Commerce and White Key Marketing.

Shaun Stevens, Commonwealth Bank's Head of Small Business for NSW and ACT, said: "Small businesses play a critical role in fuelling our economy and building community spirit. Over a challenging and unpredictable few years, they have demonstrated remarkable passion, determination and resilience and we are thrilled to be helping recognise the contributions of this vibrant group of inspiring individuals. On behalf of my team and all of us at CommBank, congratulations to the finalists and wishing you all the best in this year's awards program. We're looking forward to celebrating your achievements on the night."

Precedent Productions Managing Director and Awards founder Steve Loe said the awards presentation evenings to be held at Panthers Penrith would be very popular.

"The awards evening is always a glittering event, where our finalists dress up and let their hair down for an evening of entertainment, good food, relaxed conversation – and, of course, celebration," he said.

"Just being there as a finalist is a huge achievement, and it is a great opportunity for business people and their teams to reflect on their successes with a fun night out."

Mr Loe said the high quality of all nominees had made the job of judges a great pleasure but also immensely difficult.

"To be a finalist at the presentation evening is a huge achievement and everyone is always extremely proud to be there," he said.

"The cheers from the entire crowd are deafening as everyone celebrates the achievement of all the businesses in the room."

"I would like to take this opportunity, on behalf of the Penrith City Local Business Awards to congratulate all the finalists on their achievements."

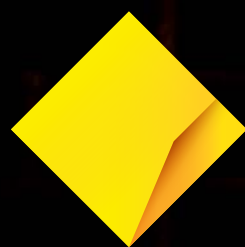

"I would also like to thank the Penrith City community for the enormous support they show for their local businesses through the Awards every year."

CRANEBROOK COMMUNITY PRESCHOOL

2022 FINALIST EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTRE

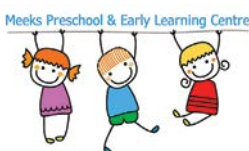

Mamalove Connect was born in my lounge room. A room that had become our bedroom due to our little one's sleeping difficulties. My mission was to promote therapy tools for children who didn't have access to them, support for parents who like us hadn't had any sleep in years and to find a place within the community where we could really make a difference.

By the end of 2018 we had reached roughly 100 families in the individual items we had donated and group items to organisations such as Cranebrook Community Pre School, Nepean Speech and OT and the Penrith Community Health Centre.

SWEAT BY SET FITNESS

2022 FINALIST FITNESS SERVICES

I became a personal trainer to help people increase their confidence and become happier. I had always been that girl who was too skinny. I was ashamed to look in the mirror. I tried to binge eat as much as I could. Feeling like that was horrible and depressing. One day I thought enough is enough. I decided to hire a coach to teach me how to control diet and a PT. In 12 months I got to my goals. Because of that my confidence increased. I was happier. Now I work every day to get my clients to their goals.
