

MOUNT DRUITT ST MARYS LOCAL BUSINESS AWARDS

Some of the happy winners at last year's Local Business Awards event.

Hollywood has the Oscars and the music industry has the Grammys – but for Mount Druitt and St Marys businesses, the annual night of nights is Tuesday, November 15.

Today is the day when nominees for the 2022 Mount Druitt St Marys Local Business Awards discover if they have made it as a finalist.

The Western Weekender, which has supported the awards as media partner for many years, today announces the finalists in each category with this eagerly anticipated special feature.

This is a chance for customers and clients to see if the businesses they nominated have become finalists.

The Mount Druitt St Marys Local Business Awards are only possible with the support of Major Partners, Blacktown City Council and NOVA Employment and Support Partners, Plumpton Market Place and White Key Marketing.

Precedent Productions Managing Director and Awards founder Steve Loe said tickets for the awards presentation evening to be held at St Marys Band Club on Tuesday, November 15 are sure to sell out.

"The awards evening is always a glittering event, where our finalists dress up and let their hair down for an evening of entertainment, good food, relaxed conversation – and, of course, celebration," he said.

"Just being there as a finalist is a huge achievement, and it is a great opportunity for business people and their teams to reflect on their successes with a fun night out."

Mr Loe said the high quality of all nominees had made the job of judges a great pleasure but also immensely difficult.

"To be a finalist at the presentation evening is a huge achievement and everyone is always extremely proud to be there," he said.

"All finalists in each category are announced, with their picture shown on the big screen.

"The cheers from the entire crowd are deafening as everyone celebrates the achievement of all the businesses in the room.

"I would like to take this opportunity, on behalf of the Mount Druitt St Marys Local Business Awards to congratulate all the finalists on their achievements.

"I would also like to thank the Mount Druitt St Marys community for the enormous support they show for their local businesses through the Awards every year.

"Without them, these outstanding businesses would receive the recognition which they deserve."
