MOUNT DRUITT ST MARYS LOCAL BUSINESS AWARDS

The Grooming Co. celebrates winning an award last year.

The Mount Druitt St Marys Local Business Awards has returned for 2023.

Nominations for this year's awards are open for members of the Mount Druitt St Marys community to put forward the names of outstanding businesses to be considered in a range of industry categories.

Head to www.thebusinessawards.com.au to vote for your favourite businesses.

Nominations for the 2023 Mount Druitt St Marys Local Business Awards will close on Tuesday, July 11 with the winners announced at the Awards Presentation Evening, on Tuesday, September 12 at St Marys Rugby League Club.

Precedent Productions Managing Director Steve Loe founded the Awards more than 35 years ago to recognise the achievements and contributions that local businesses make to their communities.

"I grew up watching how hard my parents worked in their business," he said.

"I'd see the Academy Awards and think how much my parents deserved a trophy and recognition for all they achieved and the good things they did for the community."

"That memory is what inspired me to establish the Local Business Awards program."

The Local Business Awards has since grown to include a range of industry categories and is run in 28 regions across Sydney, Hunter, Central Coast, South Coast, Southern Highlands and Canberra Region.

Mr Loe said local businesses contributed much more than goods and services to their communities.

"Local businesses contribute to their community's unique identity," he said.

"They also give back to the community by sponsoring sporting teams, supporting local charities, providing work experience for students and employment for residents of all ages."

Mr Loe said the Awards are an opportunity to thank outstanding Mount Druitt St Marys businesses for their contribution to the community.

"Nominating a business for their outstanding service or products is a great way to thank these people, who are the backbone of our community," he said.

The Mount Druitt St Marys Local Business Awards are made possible by the ongoing support of major partners; Blacktown City Council and NOVA Employment and support partners; Plumpton Marketplace, St Clair Shopping Centre, White Key Marketing and Cornerstone Community.

Mr Loe said the Awards were only possible because of the sponsors and their support.

"Many of our sponsors return year after year, which shows the value they place on supporting local businesses," he said.

The Western Weekender will provide regular updates on the progress of the Awards program and will also run a special Finalists feature and Winners feature.
