

PENRITH CITY LOCAL BUSINESS AWARDS 2020

Finalists announced

Months of suspense are finally over, as the finalists for this year's Penrith City Local Business Awards are announced.

The Western Weekender, which has supported the awards as a media partner, presents this special feature that lists all the finalists in each category.

Awards founder and Precedent Productions Managing Director Steve Loe said it was the first opportunity for customers and clients to see if the businesses they nominated for the Local Business Awards had become finalists.

"I'd like to thank everyone who took the time to nominate their favourite local businesses for this year's awards," he said.

"I know how much it means to all the nominees that members of their community see and appreciate all the efforts that they make to provide the best possible goods and services to their clients and customers.

"All of this now comes to an exciting conclusion at the upcoming gala presentation night."

Glittering frocks and sensational suits are all part of the glamour of the annual Penrith City Local Business Awards.

The night of nights recognises outstanding local businesses during a presentation ceremony where attendees rival the Hollywood red carpet event as they dress in their best for the occasion.

This year's Penrith City Local Business Awards will be held across two nights at Panthers Penrith's EVAN Theatre on Tuesday, October 13 and Wednesday, October 14.

Mr Loe said the awards presentation was always a popular and exciting event.

"The presentation evening is an opportunity for finalists to dress up and enjoy an evening of great food and entertainment, celebrate with their colleagues and friends as well as connect with people from other businesses," he said.

"There is always an excited buzz in the air as the night gets started, that reaches a fever pitch as the award winners are announced.

"I love screams of excitement as the finalists' photos appear on the big screen.

"But what is always especially heartwarming are the loud cheers and applause from the entire audience as each winner is announced."

Precedent Productions is proud to announce that the Local Business Awards will be proudly funded by the NSW Government Small Business Month for October.

The Penrith City Local Business Awards are only possible with the support of its major sponsor NOVA Employment and support sponsors Business Connect, Southlands Shopping Centre, Nepean Regional Security, Nepean Village, Penrith Homemaker Centre, Glenmore Park Town Centre, BxNetworking, White Key Marketing and Penrith Valley Chamber of Commerce.

"It's with great pleasure that I congratulate all the finalists on their achievements, on behalf of the Penrith City Local Business Awards," Mr Loe said.

"I would also like to thank the Penrith City community for the huge support that they continue to show for their local businesses through the Awards every year. Without them, these outstanding businesses wouldn't receive the recognition which they deserve."

A new approach to service

Novus Law Group, headed by local lawyer Natalie Ballard, is a local mobile law firm which has embraced the use of technology to utilise remote and flexible work practices way before it was required due to Covid-19.

Since 2018, the firm has grown to now include Janis Donnelly-Cooder, Senior Associate, and Teresa Sharpe, Licensed Conveyancer and is still delivering its services to its clients before, during and after business hours and weekends either in their home, workplace or in their offices located inside Wotso Workspace, 95B Station Street, Penrith 2750.

The team are eternally grateful for the support from their valued clients and the community and they thank each and every one of them for the continued success of Novus Law Group!
